

Project Summary
Rocky Mountains Cooperative Ecosystem Studies Unit

Project Title: Project Archaeology
Type of Project: Education
Funding Agency: Bureau of Land Management
Effective Dates: October 1, 2001 to September 30, 2006
Funding Amount: $25,000
Investigators and Agency Representative: Margaret Heath, Assistance Representative Anasazi Heritage Center PO Box 658 Dolores, CO 81323 970-882-4811 Megg_Heath@blm.gov Jeanne Moe, MSU Contact The Watercourse 201 Culberston Hall Bozeman, MT 59717 406-994-7582 jmoe@montana.edu
Project Abstract: This five-year project will establish Project Archaeology as an national heritage education program for teachers and students through a partnership with The Watercourse a Montana State University. Major activities include publishing a new national curriculum, developing a national network to distribute the curriculum to educators, designing professional development for educators and producing additional educational materials to enhance and expand the program.
Outcomes with completion dates: Publication of a new Project Archaeology Curriculum- December, 2005 Completion of national network- September, 2006 Produce additional education materials- on going
Keywords: Archaeology, heritage, education, curriculum, national network, professional development
For Administrative use only: Date Annual Report Received: Date Final Report Received: Publications, etc. on file: