

Project Summary
Rocky Mountains Cooperative Ecosystem Studies Unit

Project Title: Japanese American Confinement Sites Grant Program Internship

Discipline: Cultural
Type of Project: Technical Assistance/Education
Funding Agency: National Park Service
Other Partners/Cooperators: University of Colorado at Denver
Student Involvement: yes, interns
Effective Dates: 9/15/2012 - 12/31/2016
Funding Amount: $69,365 [FY15; $24,685; FY14: $22,680; FY13: $7,000; FY12: $15,000]

Investigators and Agency Representative:

NPS Contact: Alexandra Hernandez, Japanese American Confinement Sites Grant Program, National Park Service, Intermountain Region, P.O. Box 25287, Denver, Colorado 80225-0287; 303-969-2846; alexandra_hernandez@nps.gov

Investigator: Tom Noel, Professor of History, Director of Public History and Preservation, University of Colorado Denver, Campus Box 182, P.O. Box 173364, Denver, CO 80217-3364; 303.556.2044; tom.noel@ucdenver.edu

Project Abstract: The purpose of this agreement is for the University of Colorado Denver to assist the NPS in the planning, organization and dissemination of the files, archival materials, project reports and project deliverables that have been created as part of the Japanese American Confinement Sites Grant Program. To date, the NPS has awarded project funds to 83 organizations in 17 states.

The NPS and the University of Colorado Denver will jointly:

- 1) develop and implement a plan to disseminate that information so that it is accessible to the general public;
- 2) develop and implement a plan to file and archive the grant project information.

This work will be accomplishment through a student internship. The student will work in cooperation with NPS staff at the NPS Intermountain Region Office.

Outcomes with Completion Dates: December 31, 2016

Keywords: National Park Service, Intermountain Region - Japanese American Confinement Sites Grant Program, University of Colorado at Denver, technical assistance, student intern