Project Abstract:

This project is an extension of the previous year project that provided for a cultural affiliation study for NAGPRA objects contained in the park's collection. As an extension of the previous project, the present project provides additional funding support for the completion of the consultation process between Glacier National Park and associated Native American groups in regard to the objects (ethnographic only) contained within the park's museum collection that may be subject to NAGPRA. The cooperator will assist the park in facilitating this consultation process using the affiliation study produced under the previous phase of this project.
