Project Abstract: The cooperative research program is a shared funding initiative between the University of Wyoming and Yellowstone National Park. Contributions are normally and approximately $20,000 from the University and $5,000 from the Park. Projects are presented to the University of Wyoming in response to a request for proposals. Proposals are reviewed by a panel of University of Wyoming faculty as well as Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Park personnel. Projects are ranked and selected based on merit, contributions to science, applicability to park needs, etc. The UW/NPS Research Center will solicit YNP concurrence upon final recommendation of projects to be supported with YNP. The parks will receive final reports and an integrated annual report of projects results from the University of Wyoming.
Outcomes with completion dates: Final reports of the individual investigators' projects funded through this agreement with University of Wyoming.
