

Project Summary

Rocky Mountains Cooperative Ecosystem Studies Unit

Project Title: High Priority Wildlife Conservation Projects

Discipline: Natural Resources
Type of Project: Technical Assistance/Research
Funding Agency: National Park Service
Other Partners/Cooperators: Wildlife Conservation Society
Effective Dates: 8/28/2014 - 9/30/2016
Funding Amount: $147,000 [FY14 $123,500; FY15: $23,500]

Investigators and Agency Representative:

NPS Contact: Linda Drees, Branch Chief, National Park Service- BRMD, 1201 Oakridge Drive, Suite 200, Fort Collins, CO 80525

Investigator: Shannon Roberts, Senior Program Manager, North America Program, Wildlife Conservation Society, 301 North Wilson, Bozeman, Mt 59715; 406-581-4086; sroberts@wcs.org

Project Abstract: The purpose of this agreement is to 1) increase the availability of science-based information and other scholarly information, sharing the information related to natural areas management with a diverse body of local, state, federal, tribal, and NGO natural management professionals, 2) restoring the and facilitating the stewardship of wildlife and wildlife habitats and improving the public's understanding of protected area, and 3) involving Native Americans and other diverse and indigenous people in the projects.

Outcomes with Completion Dates: September 30, 2016

Keywords: wildlife, research, science communication, Native Americans, National Park Service, Wildlife Conservation Society