COPYRIGHT AND RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials. The various state privacy acts govern the use of materials that document private individuals, groups, and corporations.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a reproduction if the document does not infringe the privacy rights of an individual, group, or corporation. These specified conditions of authorized use include:

- non-commercial and non-profit study, scholarship, or research, or teaching
- criticism, commentary, or news reporting
- as a NPS preservation or security copy
- as a research copy for deposit in another institution

If a user later uses a copy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," the user may be personally liable for copyright, privacy, or publicity infringement. This institution's permission to obtain a photographic, xerographic, digital, or other copy of a document doesn't indicate permission to publish, exhibit, perform, reproduce, sell, distribute, or prepare derivative works from this document without first obtaining permission from the copyright holder and from any private individual, group, or corporation shown or otherwise recorded.

Permission to publish, exhibit, perform, reproduce, prepare derivative works from, sell, or otherwise distribute the item must be obtained by the user separately in writing from the holder of the original copyright (or if the creator is dead from his/her heirs) as well as from any individual(s), groups, or corporations whose name, image, recorded words, or private information (e.g., employment information) may be reproduced in the source material. The holder of the original copyright isn't necessarily the National Park Service. The National Park Service is not legally liable for copyright, privacy, or publicity infringement when materials are wrongfully used after being provided to researchers for "fair use."

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if fulfillment of the order is judged in violation of copyright or federal or state privacy or publicity law.

HISTORY

The idea for Nez Perce National Historical Park originated in two separate causes, or movements. The first movement featured the longstanding efforts of white residents of the Clearwater Valley to commemorate the mid-nineteenth-century activities of Protestant missionaries Henry and Eliza Spalding. The second movement sprang from the efforts of the Nez Perce Tribe to foster job growth on their reservation through tourism development. Beginning about 1961, activists in the two movements began working together toward a common goal of establishing a national historical park. The resulting campaign garnered support from both the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) and the National Park Service (NPS).

Nez Perce National Historical Park was established as a unit of the national park system on May 15, 1965, by Public Law 89-19. The law specifies the park was created to "facilitate protection and provide interpretation of sites in the Nez Perce Country of Idaho that have exceptional value in commemorating the history of the Nation." Specifically mentioned are sites relating to early Nez Perce culture, the Lewis and Clark expedition through the area, the fur trade, missionaries, gold mining, logging, the Nez Perce War of 1877, and "such other sites as will depict the role of the Nez Perce country in the westward expansion of the Nation." Sites include historic buildings, battlefields, missions, landscapes, cemeteries, trails, archeological sites, and geologic formations important to the Nez Perce people. A total of 24 sites were established in 1965.

Public Law 102-576 of October 30, 1992, allowed sites to be designated in Oregon, Washington, Montana, and Wyoming. It specified that 14 additional sites in Idaho, Oregon, Washington, and Montana should be included in the park.

Ms. Maines was contracted to review, organize and catalog records deemed to have lasting historical value in describing the administration and management of Nez Perce NHP. Although the collection was not used to write Nez Perce National Historical Park: Administrative History by Ted Catton, it became the basis of this archival collection. Additional records selected for permanent retention in the future will be accessioned into this collection as they become available.
ORGANIZATION	The records are organized into twelve series: I: History, II: Agreements, III: Archeology, IV: Correspondence, V: Interpretive Files, VI: Land, VII: Maintenance, VIII: Museum Activity, IX: Natural Resource Files, X: Site Files, XI: Ephemera, XII: Publications, XIII: NEPE Central Files

PROCESSING NOTES

The collection was arranged and processed during FY 2002 by Jeffrey A. Johnson, Ph.D. student at Washington State University, under the direction of Robert Applegate, Nez Perce NHP Archivist.

The order imposed by Rachael Maines was revised to better reflect Nez Perce NHP administrative history and to facilitate location of materials by staff and researchers. Some material copied from other institutions by Ms. Maines was deemed inappropriate for the NEPE Museum Archives. This material was deposited in the NEPE Library.

The material in this collection produced by or under the direction of the DOI/NPS/NEPE is arranged in a manner consistent with subject headings found in NPS-19, the NPS Records Management Disposition Schedule. Additional material not produced by the government is found under these headings to further document Nez Perce NHP administrative history. Remaining material is arranged under logical series headings.

Duplicate materials, staples, and fasteners were removed. Acidic and damaged paper was photocopied and removed.

In 2006, an accretion of 25.75 resource management records was added to the collection. These records were added to:

- Series IV: Correspondence;
- Series VIII: Museum Activity;
- Series X: Site Files;
- and Series XII: Publications.

The finding aid was revised to reflect these changes in FY 2009 by Sara Casper, Archives Technician.

In FY 2011, an accretion of central files records was added to the NEPE Resource Management Records Collection NEPE catalog # 33871 as Series XIII, NEPE Central Files. This accretion consisted of 17 linear feet of NEPE permanent records including 16 linear feet from NEPE central files and 1 linear foot of Canoe Camp expansion project files. The chronological range of the collection stretches from 1963-2010, with the bulk of the material created at NEPE between 1965 - 1998
