

Project Summary
Rocky Mountains Cooperative Ecosystem Studies Unit

Project Title: A Proposal for Establishing a National Reference Site Clearing House (NRSC): A Public Database Containing the Biological Data Needed to Conduct Biological Assessments of Freshwater Ecosystems in the US
Type of Project: Research
Project Discipline : Natural
Funding Agency: USGS
Other Partners/Cooperators:
Effective Dates: July 15, 2007 – September 30, 2007
Funding Amount: $20,000.00
Investigators and Agency Representative (contact information): PI: Charles Hawkins Utah State University College of Natural Resources 5230 Old Main Hill Phone: 435.797.2280 Fax: 435.797.1871 hawkins@cc.usu.edu
Project Abstract: The objective of this proposal is to establish a publicly accessible database (the NRSC) that contains information on the freshwater biota and associated watershed and habitat information collected at reference quality sites throughout the United States.
Outcomes with completion dates (reports, publications, workshops, videos, etc.):
Keywords: Public database, freshwater ecosystems, United States